

PARTYING UP THE NIGHT

Singapore is magical once the sun goes down. Clarke Quay is not just convenient but a favourite destination for local and foreign party animals. Do take the train and stop at Clarke Quay MRT Station.

Most clubs charge per entry and there is a dress code (no sandals, shorts or T-shirt). When you are ready to leave, the best way to make your back is by taking a taxi.

Attica

Drop in for some drinks at the island bar or make a reservation for a table at the lounge area.

Open Tuesdays to Saturdays 10pm to late.

THE CLINIC

Head on down here if you are looking for something quirky. This popular alfresco bar is easily distinguished with its clinical look, in tribute to the tongue-in-cheek pop art of Damien Hirst. Patrons sit in wheelchairs and drink from a drip-bag.
